

For drilling test holes and water wells see J. H. Graham, Pomona. 4-25f

Miss Lula Borden was the guest of Miss Nancy Anderson at her home near Clifty, for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Sherman Selby and little daughter, and Finas and Woodrow Tollett, of Burke, were the guests of Mrs. Birch Wheeler from Thursday to Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Brown were the Thanksgiving guests at the J. L. Anderson home near Clifty, last week and enjoyed a bountiful turkey dinner.

TAKEN UP—One claybank horse, scar on left leg. Owner can have horse by paying for this notice, care of animal and caring for same. Dock Scott, Ozone, Tenn.

Miss Antoinette Jackson was home from Harriman for the week-end, returning Sunday.

Miss Annetta Clouse, daughter of Congressman Clouse, was here from Cookeville last week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Horn. She returned home Sunday.

ESTRAYED—One 1-year old red steer, labeled, Pleasant Hill Academy. One 1-year old black heifer, labeled J. H. Smith. Notify Pleasant Hill Academy. 11-29-22.

Richard Brady and Dexter Southard left Thursday in a car for West Palm Beach, Fla., where they plan to pass the winter. Mrs. Brady and little son went to Monterey to remain with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bloomfield, until Mr. Brady returns.

Ed Hale, son of Mike Hale, left last week for Kansas City, Mo., to enter Sweeney Automobile and Tractor School with the view to taking a thorough course in auto mechanics. The boy has written home and reports safe arrival and is pleased with the surroundings so far as he had seen. He will probably remain there three or four months.

Mrs. Amos Aytes arrived from Morgan county a few days ago to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.V. Wright. She will probably return home this week.

Gordon B. Smith, son of James Smith, has completed his sea service with the U. S. Navy Hospital Department and is now stationed at League Island, Pa., near Philadelphia. He seems to be making good progress in his work.

Mrs. W. R. Turner, who was here for some days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dorton, left for her home, at Dunlap, Sequatchie county, last week.

Miss Gladys Comstock spent the week-end in Knoxville visiting her sister, Mrs. T. M. Irish.

S. G. Grey, wife and little son, Garth Jr., came over from Knoxville Wednesday to pass Thanksgiving with her mother, Mrs. Susie W. Dunbar. Mr. and Mrs. Grey returned home Friday, but Master Garth, Jr., remained until Sunday and went home by train.

Mrs. H. J. Dunbar, who is teaching at Ozone; Miss Hallie Dunbar, who is teaching in the Rockwood city schools; and Mrs. W. H. Parham and two children, Floyd and Georgia, of Ozone, were all here for Thanksgiving at the H. J. Dunbar home.

Waldo Dunbar, who went to Chicago a few weeks ago on a visit, is expected home in a short time.

H. L. Dunbar and son will build a neat bungalow where their present residence stands this winter. In the mean time they are occupying the J. H. Beeson residence near by. They expect to begin work dismantling the old home in a short time.

It will be remembered that Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rector moved a few weeks ago to Wayland, Ky., where Mr. Rector went to work for one of the large coal companies of that section. A recent letter from him states that he is in charge of the meat, vegetable and grocery department of one of the coal companies at a good salary and is liking the place fine. Mr. Rector is a capable butcher and clerk and is sure to make good in a very substantial manner for he is both capable and a willing worker and such qualities always win success. Their many friends here will be pleased to know that they are so pleasantly situated and will wish them continued prosperity.

GET CRIPPLED WATCHES FIXED

If you have a watch or piece of jewelry that needs repairing, bring it to the Chronicle office and Bishop will send it away and have it fixed right and you can pay for the work when you get it.

ADDITION TO THE PRESENT ELECTRIC LIGHT EQUIPMENT

L. G. Poague has arranged for another Delco unit to be added at once to the electric light plant. It is expected to arrive any day and so soon as the concrete base is ready it will be hooked up, to the present plant. Then the town will be assured of ample light and power for the Holidays.

A movement is on foot to organize a stock company and greatly enlarge the present plant and bring it up to a point where all the requirements of the town for several years will be met. Nothing of a really definite character has been done as yet, but concerted action is expected to be taken in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Southard took their little daughter, Eloise, to Nashville Thursday for treatment. A minor operation was necessary. The little girl is doing well and she and mother are expected home in a few days.

Dr. F. J. Upham arrived home on the morning train yesterday from Nashville where he had been in the St. Thomas hospital taking radium treatment. He is gradually growing weaker and is in a very feeble condition.

ART CIRCLE BAZAAR TO BE HELD IN THE COURT HOUSE

The Art Circle bazaar, that has been discussed for several weeks in these columns, will be held Friday in the Court House. A caftateera dinner will be served at noon to which all are cordially invited.

The bazaar is being put on by the Art Circle, the Methodist Episcopal the Christian and the Baptist churches jointly.

For many weeks the ladies have been preparing a great variety of useful and beautiful articles suitable for Christmas gifts and mementoes to friends which will be placed on sale Friday. It is probable the bazaar will be continued through the evening in order to accommodate those who may not be able to attend during the day.

BIDS WANTED!

The Commission received but one bid for distribution of slag on Road No. 4, from Crossville to the Cumberland Mountain School, which was 80¢ per cubic yard. Said bid was rejected. Mr. Spencer, a member of the commission, offers to distribute the slag between said points at 60¢ per cubic yard. Any responsible person desiring to do said work at that price will be awarded the contract, provided such person is the lowest bidder, by applying to the Commission withing five days from this date.

December 6, 1922.
Cumberland County Road Commission,
By E. G. TOLLETT, Chairman.

Rev. E. P. Anderson, presiding elder of the Lebanon district of the M. E. Church, South, filled the pulpit at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday. Rev. Anderson is one of the leading ministers of the Tennessee conference and is also a member of the school board.

Word comes from Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dunbar that Mrs. Dunbar at once secured a position as stenographer and that Mr. Dunbar found plenty of work in his line of paper hanging and painting and they are much pleased with their new home at Orlando, Fla.
